Mission Statement

By Word and Sacrament, we are sent to glorify God with our lives.

Monday, Jan. 22, has been set aside as a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. In the Gospel of John, shortly before He is to suffer His Passion, Jesus proclaims to His disciples: “I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another” (Jn 13:34).

And it is love for one another that Jesus says will be the identifying characteristic of His disciples. The Church’s entire social doctrine is guided by the fundamental principle that every human life has innate dignity and incomparable value: Every human being is the object of God’s infinite tenderness, and He Himself is present in their lives. As disciples of Christ, we’re called to make a sacrificial gift of ourselves for the sake of our neighbor, for to love someone is to desire that person’s good and to take effective steps to secure it. Fulfilling Christ’s command to love one another takes shape in our practice of solidarity. Solidarity is the means by which we put our love for others into action, making the good of others our own. Solidarity is not a feeling of vague compassion or shallow distress at the misfortunes of so many people. On the contrary, it is a firm and persevering determination to commit oneself to the common good, to the good of all and of each individual, because we are all really responsible for all.

In reaction to the overturning of Roe v. Wade, some areas of the country now protect the child in the womb, while others are doing all they can to increase access to abortion. At this critical moment, we have been entrusted with new opportunities and new responsibilities to build a civilization of authentic love. Our culture claims to offer women so-called “choice,” but ultimately abandons mothers to make tragic and painful decisions alone. We must lead the way in showing the alternative: In firmly rejecting ‘pro-choice’ it is necessary to become courageously ‘pro woman,’ promoting a choice that is truly in favor of women. The only honest stance, in these cases, is that of radical solidarity with the woman. It is not right to leave her alone. Experience shows that when a mother is supported, she is even capable of heroism. Radical solidarity compels us to come alongside vulnerable mothers in profound friendship, compassion, and support for both them and their preborn children. It requires us to address the fundamental challenges that lead an expectant mother to believe she is unable to welcome the child God has entrusted to her. We must do all we can to provide mothers, children, and families with the support they need to flourish. This cannot be accomplished by laws or policy alone, but requires the continual transformation of our own hearts, recognizing in every person the face of Christ, and placing their needs before our own.

Radical solidarity refers to something more than a few sporadic acts of generosity. It presumes the creation of a new mindset. A culture of radical solidarity gets involved by word and deed in people’s daily lives and it embraces human life, touching the suffering flesh of Christ in others. We each have our particular gifts, role, and obligation within the Body of Christ to help build a culture of life. We must honestly ask ourselves, what radical, out-of-the-ordinary, actions have I taken to help a pregnant or parenting mother in need, or to proactively contribute to a culture of life in some other way?

Inspired by Christ’s own example of love, may we enter fully into the fabric of society, sharing the lives of all, listening to their concerns, helping them materially and spiritually in their needs, rejoicing with those who rejoice, weeping with those who weep. May we work together to bring about a culture of life through radical, sacrificial, Christ-like love.

Consider opportunities for additional prayer, this week, that are posted in this bulletin.

Peace, Joy, and Love,
Fr. Brian J. Roby

Stewardship Bulletin Reflection January 21, 2024 Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's readings call us to be decisive in our faith.

Simon, Andrew, James, and John demonstrate this decision for us in their response to Christ's calling, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." In both instances, the men immediately abandoned what was before them and followed Christ.

Imagine if Simon and Andrew looked at their Savior and said, "Thanks for the offer, but we will finish up fishing and meet you later." That is no way a disciple should respond to Christ's call. Yet, that is how we often respond to Jesus' offer to us, "Come after me."

We can easily fall into the misconception that we have plenty of time to live active discipleship. But as faithful stewards of our time, we must change our ways and immediately follow Christ more intentionally, because Christ is calling us to act now.

These men became members of Jesus' 12 apostles. They surrendered their entire lives to follow Christ. We, too, are called to surrender our lives to the Lord so that He may work through us. We might think, "God isn't calling me." But indeed, He is. Just as He called four ordinary fishermen, He is calling each one of us.

Renewing and reevaluating what God might be asking of us throughout our lives is a key component of our stewardship journey.

As we settle into this New Year, let us ponder the ways we can renew our commitment to God. Let us ask ourselves: what are we casting our nets for? And are we willing to leave it behind for something much greater? And if not now, when?

Sponsorship Opportunities for the Bulletin

Why Advertise in a Church Bulletin?

- Advertising in the Weekly Parish Bulletin is one of the best returns for your advertising dollar.
- The advertising expense is tax deductible.
- It is localized advertising; it's in the area that you serve.
- Advertising helps promote your business throughout the community.
- The bulletin gives excellent exposure to the business person because it's reaching more clients.
- Parishioners feel secure dealing with bulletin sponsors.
- The Parish and the Businesses both benefit.
- We spotlight a sponsor each week.

If you do not have a business, but personally know of someone who does, please help the Parish by referring that person or business.

For more information on sponsorship, please contact Samantha McMichael at the Parish Office, 270-233-4196 or samantha.mcmichael@stmarywoods.com
