Mission Statement

By Word and Sacrament, we are sent to glorify God with our lives.

From the Pastor

We have a marvelous collection of Bourbon to raffle. Tickets are $10.00 a piece. We will have ten drawings on Friday, Dec. 13th. Help us sell the tickets!

We have a Holy Day of Obligation on Monday, Dec. 9th, for the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. The Mass Schedule is posted in this bulletin.

As the Universal Church looks toward the Jubilee Year 2025 (the 2,025th anniversary of the Incarnation of our Lord), the USCCB is thrilled to support the Holy Father in this "event of great spiritual, ecclesial, and social significance in the life of the Church." Pope Francis stated in his letter announcing the Jubilee 2025: "We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision. The forthcoming Jubilee can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a prelude to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire..."

The conversion we're called to in Advent has a distinctive character: one of "joyful hope." A Catholic living Advent today is in a better position than Messianic prophets like Isaiah and Micah: we know how the story turned out in Jesus of Nazareth. At the same time, today's Catholic also knows how the story will turn out: the triumph of God and goodness, when everything is subjected to Him so that God may be all in all. We know that God, who will come to judge the living and the dead, will prevail. The only thing we don't know is on which side we will be in that judgment: among the sheep or the goats. That's why Advent is a time of preparation and conversion: it's a time to make myself ready for the coming of Christ, King and judge of the living and the dead. The way I prepare myself is through conversion of heart, turning from creatures to the Creator, from sin to grace.

Opportunities abound, in the holy season of Advent, to make a good confession in preparation for Christmas. You've heard me say that it's one of the greatest gifts to give yourself. Consider one of the communal penance services in the area or a Saturday scheduled time here at St. Mary from 1pm-3pm.

Hats off to our Worship and Spiritual Life Committee for hosting the reception following our Ecumenical Service. Well done, good and faithful servants!

Fr. Brian J. Roby
